SHOUT! flips through the years like a musical magazine and takes you back to the music, the fashion and the freedom of the 60's! This smashing revue tracks five groovy gals as they come of age during those liberating days that made England swing! Join this non-stop journey through the infectious and soulful pop anthems and ballads that made household names of stars like Petula Clark, Dusty Springfield and Lulu. SHOUT! uses letters to an advice columnist, true confessions, quizzes and advertisements as a frame for terrific new arrangements of such chart-topping hits as "To Sir With Love," "Downtown," "You Don't Have to Say You Love Me," "Son of A Preacher Man," and "Goldfinger." With its irresistible blend of hip-swiveling hits, eye-popping fashions and psychedelic dances from the 60's, this fun-filled musical will make you want to throw your head back and SHOUT!

There are so many things to whistle a happy tune about in "The King and I" which is musical theater royalty. Cultures clash in this classic tale of a fiery but compassionate British teacher and widow who meets her match in the stubborn King of Siam. "The King and I" tells the story of Anna, a tutor to the king's many children and wives and the King who is deciding how best to bring his country into the new age. With both keeping a firm grip on their respective traditions and values, Anna and the King grow to understand and eventually respect one another in this captivating and timeless treasure of wills, wits and wisdom.

"THE KING AND I" is under the direction of Susan Mele. The production will run as a dinner show catered by the Republic Grille. For the evening performances, dinner will be served at 7:00pm with an 8:00pm curtain. The two Sunday matinees will have dinner served at 1:00pm with curtain at 2:00pm.
